

2. Assistance and Guidance Affairs:

- I. Review of progressive corrective measures of inmates.
- II. Proposal and report on giving parole and withdrawing parole of inmates.
- III. Offering inmate-family reunion service on festivals.

Inmate-family reunion on Spring Festival

- IV. Arrange for charity organizations or associations to discipline inmates by educational, speech, and religious activities.

Buddha's Day activity

Psalm activity of Christian Rehabilitation Fellowship

- V. Propagating legal knowledge to augment inmates' legal knowledge, dissuade them from committing an offense again, encourage them to follow good examples, and inspire them to move upwardly.

Legal knowledge counseling

Courses of alcohol abstinence

- VI. Holding entertainment activities, including Karaoke singing contest, patriotic song contest, chess game, volleyball competition.

Karaoke competition of inmates

Game of Chinese checkers

VII. Courses of drug and alcohol abstinence measures.

AIDS/Drug health education

Drug abstinence education

VIII. To hold training classes or researching classes, such as calligraphy class, saxophone band, Chinese lion dance troupe, traditional Chinese painting class and Balloon class.

Class of saxophone band

Class of Balloon

Chinese calligraphy class